

Privacy Policy

Your privacy is important to us. This privacy statement provides information about the personal information that we collect, and the ways in which we use that personal information.

Personal information collection

GYMA Laboratories may collect and use the following kinds of personal information: information that you provide for the purpose of subscribing to the website services (including contacting us)

Using personal information

GYMA Laboratories may use your personal information to: supply to you services that you purchase;

- send you statements and invoices;
- send you marketing communications.

Where GYMA Laboratories discloses your personal information to its agents or sub-contractors for these purposes, the agent or sub-contractor in question will be obligated to use that personal information in accordance with the terms of this privacy statement.

In addition to the disclosures reasonably necessary for the purposes identified elsewhere above, GYMA Laboratories may disclose your personal information to the extent that it is required to do so by law, in connection with any legal proceedings or prospective legal proceedings, and in order to establish, exercise or defend its legal rights.

Securing your data

GYMA Laboratories will take reasonable technical and organizational precautions to prevent the loss, misuse or alteration of your personal information. GYMA Laboratories will store all the personal information you provide either on its secure servers or offline.

Cross-border data transfers

Information that GYMA Laboratories collects may be stored and processed in and transferred between any of the countries in which GYMA Laboratories operates to enable the use of the information in accordance with this privacy policy. You agree to such cross-border transfers of personal information.

Updating this statement

GYMA Laboratories may update this privacy policy by posting a new version on this website.

You should check this page occasionally to ensure you are familiar with any changes.
